

Information Station–Truly Outstanding Friendly Service

“ Excuse me, where can I find something tasty?” “ Excuse me, what are the specialty products of this region?” If you have any question during your journey in Taiwan, come to the Information Station and you may be pleasantly surprised at their warm hospitality!

In order to help independent travelers have their question answered via friendly, Taiwanese-style service, the Taiwan Tourism Administration has collaborates with friendly stores and service providers throughout Taiwan to establish “Information Stations” that help visitors in Taiwan.

You can spot an “ Information Station” by its yellow, round“ Information Station” sign with black letters. Other than maps and travel information, the station also has a Wi-Fi hotspot and QR codes that guide visitors to a variety of cloud-based travel services.

Travelers are able to experience “ local characteristics” and “ hospitality” by visiting any information station. The aim of establishing this information station system is to encourage visitors to come back so that they can continue to enjoy the beauty of Taiwan and the friendliness from the local people. Come on, don't be shy; everyone is invited to make inquiries at the “ Information Station”!

Meiling Scenic Area, known as the backyard of Tainan, has different views the whole year round. The weather at Meiling is pleasant in spring and autumn, bringing many hikers to the trails blooming with all kinds of flowers. Summer is the firefly season for tourists to admire sparkling fireflies dancing in the air. In winter, plum blossoms bloom, covering the whole mountain top in white. Other than enjoying the snowy scenery, many tourists come here to enjoy a pot of the local delicacy-plum chicken. Nothing can be better than having the hot chicken stock to warm your body and heart in winter. Stunning views and delicious dishes make Meiling a perfect choice to satisfy every tourist.
